

The fact that approximately 80% of Wisconsin households have signed up for the state do not call list shows that Wisconsin's law is popular as it is and that Wisconsin residents value the peace and quiet that this law provides. Please do not weaken this law by caving in to special interests such as the banking lobby. In fact, many Wisconsin residents would favor strengthening the law further to close existing loopholes (e.g., campaign phone calls, etc.) and increase fines.